1. Provide a summary description of hazard recognition training documents you provide your employees related to overhead transmission and distribution facilities.

Southwest Arkansas Electric Cooperative Corporation utilizes a Safety and Loss Control representative from the statewide organization, Arkansas Electric Cooperatives, to provide professional safety training services at monthly safety meetings. This includes annual hazard recognition training as required by OSHA and on-going reviews of NESC standards. The American Public Power Association (APPA) Safety Manual and Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) are the standard resource for training and is readily available to all employees. Near-misses, accidents, and any relevant happenings are discussed at weekly and monthly safety meetings. Job briefings are required on a daily basis for all work to be performed by Southwest Arkansas Electric Cooperative personnel and includes a hazard recognition discussion for each task.
